Global Training on Chairing Meetings of the Basel, Rotterdam and Stockholm Conventions, Minamata Convention and SAICM

Berlin, Germany, 1-3 February 2017

PRACTICAL NOTE FOR PARTICIPANTS

I. Getting to Berlin

Berlin is the capital city of Germany, located about two hours South-East of Hamburg and about three hours north of Dresden. The city has two main airports: the Tegel Airport and the Schönefeld Airport.

Participants arriving at Berlin Tegel Airport can reach the city's central station by taxi in about 16 minutes travel time (the fare from the airport to the central station is approximately €25.00), or by bus BVG TXL, departing from the bus stop located near the entrance to Tegel Airport to the central station. A "Day Ticket ABC" can be purchased for €7.60, which can be used for all local transport methods including bus, tram, and U-Bahn / S-Bahn transit systems.

Participants arriving at Berlin Schönefeld Airport can reach the city centre by taxi in about 31 minutes travel time (the fare from the airport to city centre is approximately €60.00). Alternatively, participants can also take the S-Bahn RB, with the closest stop located at a four minute walking distance from the entrance to Schönefeld Airport.

II. Meeting Venue

The Global training on chairing meetings of the Basel, Rotterdam and Stockholm conventions, Minamata Convention and SAICM will be held at the Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation, Building and Nuclear Safety:
