22. III.5 What are the most important practical challenges you face with respect to the movement of waste?

the most important practical challenges we have faced is to receive back the copy of the movement of waste.

23. IV.1 Do you think there is a need for an initiative to provide for electronic data approaches to notification and movement, which would be available to all Parties to the Basel Convention (a Basel Convention electronic system for transboundary movements)?

 Yes ***

If so, why?

To solve the difficulties faced between the exporter and Parties during the transboundary movement process.

No

If so, why?

25. IV.3 Which, if any, of the alternatives listed below for a Basel Convention electronic system for transboundary movements would be your preference? Please, tick the relevant box and explain your answer.

 A central system managed by the Secretariat and accessible by all Parties and other stakeholders  we will work in common and standardised system.

A decentralised system, where each Party would have its own system, which could communicate with other systems using standardized messages

Not answered

An intermediate system, with some Parties having their own systems and others not, with the Secretariat playing the role of the centralized repository of the notifications

26. IV.4 If you would favour a Basel Convention electronic system for transboundary movements, what would you expect the main benefits to be?

The exporter will take few time on sorting of waste export process with Parties involved, The Parties will have facilities to share the experience and the information.

27. IV.5 If you would not favour a Basel Convention electronic system for transboundary movements, what would you expect the main challenges to be?

we will have challenges as difficulties for sound management of waste, learn and share the information with parties, non flexible system of transboundary movement of waste.

28. V.1 Please add any additional information or comments pertaining to an electronic data approach that is not included in answers to the above questions and could improve the implementation of the Basel Convention control procedure.

I think the secretariat presented the relevant information regarding the electronic data approach.

29. V.2 Please list the stakeholders within your jurisdiction to whom you have sent the questionnaire for stakeholders available at <http://fs.pops.int/icc-electronic-approaches-stakeholders>. You may provide the information in the box below or attach a list.
